ST. BONAVENTURE SECULAR FRANCISCANS ✦ DETROIT, MICHIGAN

The Sacred Heart of Jesus, 2010 by Stephen B. Whatley

... His heart, more than all the other members of his body, is the natural sign and symbol of his boundless love for the human race. “There is in the Sacred Heart,” as our predecessor of immortal memory, Leo XIII, pointed out, “the symbol and express image of the infinite love of Jesus Christ which moves us to love in return” (see Encl. “Annum Sacrum”: Acta Leonis, vol. XIX, 1900, p. 76.).

MINISTER'S LETTER

My dear brothers and sisters,

May the Lord grant you peace!

What an amazing fraternity gathering we shared together in May! When I arrived at the SFO office, I was exhausted from working 10-12 hour days for the past two weeks. Yet, I was excited to be with all of you because I knew we were about to experience something very special together — the process of Appreciative Inquiry. During the small group sharing, I glanced around the room and was thrilled to observe everyone engaged in telling their story of their best experience of being a Secular Franciscan, listening to each other and getting to know each other better, and I felt energized by the positive energy that filled the room. When I left the meeting, I felt rejuvenated and excited that we are united in this process of moving our fraternity forward. I am grateful to Br. Pat for leading us through this process and to all of you for your active participation in sharing with one another and for your enthusiastic and positive comments following the meeting. At our fraternity gathering on June 13, Br. Pat will lead us through part two of the Appreciative Inquiry process. I hope you will make every effort to attend this fraternity gathering.

As many of you know, I work at Marygrove College. This past Saturday, we celebrated Commencement, a joyous celebration for our College community and the official conclusion of another academic year. Although the administrative offices are open during the summer months, the pace is a little less hectic. I am looking forward to having more time for extended periods of rest and contemplation. As I prepare for this time of a slower pace, I am reminded of Jesus' words of invitation to:

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while” (Mk 6:31).

“Come to me, all you who feel weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls (Mt 11:28-29).

And the words of Psalm 46:10 – “Be still and know that I am God.”

During these summer months, may you feast on leisure, slowing down, contentment, enjoying being outdoors, renewing your spirit, and spending precious time with family and friends.

Your sister in St. Francis,
maryann

It seems like only yesterday, but...

May 20, 2010 marked six years since the appointment of Capuchin Br. Patrick McSherry as Spiritual Assistant of St. Bonaventure SFO Fraternity. He was appointed on May 24, 2004 by the Provincial Assistant, Fr. Lester Bach, OFM Cap.

(right) Br. Patrick McSherry being invested into the Third Order of St. Francis on February 22, 1965 at Our Lady of Angels High School Seminary in Staunton, VA.

Brothers and Sisters

Twenty-year jubilarian Clara O’Keefe wrote to say that she was physically unable to attend the Jubilee celebration. Jo Marie Nardi was kind enough to deliver her Certificate to her. Clara’s address is 23322 Greencrest St., St. Clair Shores, MI 48080. Health issues also prevented 25-year jubilarian Joe Pierce from attending. He thanked Bev Sopian for the Certificate. Joe’s address is 36430 Van Dyke, Apt. 123, Sterling Heights, MI 48312. Alice Vier is at St. Mary’s Nursing & Rehab Center (where Terry Pfaendtner is). The address is 22601 East Nine Mile, St. Clair Shores, MI 48080.

If you’ve ever wondered why each month The Poverello features a child from St. Judes Children’s Research Hospital, it’s because for a number of years our Fraternity has been a sponsor of this worthy cause. Our Fraternity also offers monthly financial assistance to two poor families in India.

Fr. Carmel Flora wrote from “Downunder” and sends his “regards to all the SFO members...keep well and God bless you all.”

Great news – Lorretta Chmielarczyk has a new diagnosis – no cancer – no chemo – on the mend. Praise the Lord and thanks for your prayers!

Also, Sylvia Stanik’s doctor told her that she can resume driving. Caroline Hojna could use prayers from her siblings and husband, Ted.

Fr. Dan Anholzer, the former Capuchin Provincial Minister, died suddenly on May 13th, at only 58 years of age. He had had a history of heart problems. Please keep him, his mother and family, his Capuchin brothers and the members of St. Joe Parish in Saginaw, where Fr. Dan ministered [after Fr. Ray Trejo], in your prayers.

Our Third Sunday gathering was fantastic! It was a follow-up to the presentation last month by Capuchin Fr. John Celichowski on Appreciative Inquiry. The meeting began with our Rule Reflection led by Bev Sopian. Much of the group reflections centered on the divine seed being present in everyone.

Next, Br. Pat led us in an experience of the first phase of the process of Appreciative Inquiry. We divided ourselves into groups of four people per table, with married couples sitting apart and those in initial formation being asked to sit among the professed members. The focus of the sharing was the question: “What was your best experience as a Secular Franciscan thus far?”

Bev Sopian

Since this was a sharing rather than a discussion, people were asked to share deeply their experiences and what the events meant to them and to really listen to the stories of the others at their table. At the end of the sharing, each table was asked to reflect on any common threads there might have been in their experiences, and to share the common threads with the entire group.

Br. Pat

There were many, many magnificent things shared. I just wish that I could have been at each table to hear the experiences and stories. It was only then that Br. Pat informed us that we had experienced the first phase of the Appreciative Inquiry process. I could identify with Br. Pat when he said that he was unable to recall just a single event of “the best experience of being a Franciscan.” He recalled participating in a Peace Walk from the Porziuncola to the Basilica of St. Francis that drew countless Franciscans of all denominations, both religious and secular, and how he felt like he truly was part of some force for good reaching to the far corners of the earth. He recalled the friars gathering around the bedside of Fr. Jogues (and other brothers) as he lay dying, a clear sign of “see how they love one another”. He recalled a group of friars going to a village decimated by an earthquake, pitching tents there among the grief-stricken to share their sorrow and to bring them consolation in their heartache, etc.

Everyone was enthusiastic after the experience, and Br. Pat explained that the point of the process is to go from strength to strength, and to build on the positive. What our members experienced in going through this process was very typical: a sense of pride in being a Secular Franciscan and member of our Fraternity, gratitude, excitement, blessing, in short — appreciation. At the end, the fraternity decided to continue with the Apprlicative Inquiry process at our next (June) meeting.

Our minister Maryann Kummer (above) then reminded everyone that because Fathers Day falls on the Third Sunday, our Fraternity Gathering will be held on the second Sunday, June 13th. Besides thanking everyone who brought goodies for our gathering as well as those who donated towels for the Towel Drive, Maryann also underscored how proud she is of our Fraternity, and how privileged she feels to be our minister.

Aubrey
10 years old
acute lymphoblastic leukemia

During a family outing to a restaurant, Aubrey’s step-grandfather mentioned that Aubrey looked pale. It being winter, her mom, Amy, thought that was normal for the season. But when Aubrey’s grandmother remarked on her pallor the next day, Amy decided to take her to the pediatrician to check for anemia. Five hours after that visit, Aubrey’s doctor pulled into the driveway of the family home. The doctor wanted to be there in person to deliver the frightening news. “I’m so sorry,” the pediatrician told Amy, “but Aubrey has leukemia.” “I felt numb,” said Amy. “I know I must have been in shock because I was shaking.” Amy’s friend—a nurse—was there that night, and she urged the family to take Aubrey to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital. Amy obtained the referral, loaded her children into the car, and drove through the night. They drove through an ice storm and arrived in Memphis at 4 a.m. Her husband, who had been away on a trip, met them at the hospital.

Aubrey was placed on an intense chemotherapy protocol to rid her body of the cancer. “The medical team at St. Jude makes the best decisions for her,” said Amy. “I feel comfortable and confident that Aubrey is getting the best care. No matter what happens, they know what to do.”

Aubrey is an energetic kid who loves to play, draw and sing at the top of her lungs. She loves her doctor and nurses and says she wants to be a nurse when she grows up. “We had such a normal life before,” said Amy. “Good friends, good grades, safe community. We were blessed. And this may sound strange, but I still think we’re blessed. This situation woke us up to realities that many families face. I see people differently now. I have more compassion, and Aubrey does too.”

Rule Reflection for June

SFO Rule, Art. 14; SFO Constitutions, Art. 20

SFO Rule, Art. 14

Secular Franciscans, together with all people of good will, are called to build a more fraternal and evangelical world so that the kingdom of God may be brought about more effectively. Mindful that anyone “who follows Christ, the perfect man, becomes more of a man himself,” let them exercise their responsibilities competently in the Christian spirit of service.

SFO Constitutions, Article 20

1. Rule 14 Secular Franciscans, committed by their vocation to build the Kingdom of God in temporal situations and activities, live their membership both in the Church and in society as an inseparable reality.
2. As the primary and fundamental contribution to building a more just and fraternal world, they should commit themselves both to the generous fulfillment of the duties proper to their occupation and to the professional training that pertains to it. With the same spirit of service, they should assume their social and civil responsibilities.

Questions for Table Discussion:

1. Our “secularity” [Secular Franciscans] means that we exercise active participation in the events and direction of society, and that we do something [more than just pray] to help redeem the world. As Christ gave himself to save the world, so Secular Franciscans are called to be a force for good in our world. What are you doing or could you do in this regard?

Celebrating Hugh Montpetit

Hugh was born on June 4, 1930 to Hector and Aimee Montpetit of Québec, Canada. His father was the first in their family to move from Québec to the Detroit area and many of their family members followed soon afterwards. Hugh was born at home on Baldwin Avenue in Detroit. His sister, Carmen, age 85, is still very active. His older brother, Alfred, went to the seminary but left to join the Air Force during World War II. Alfred was shot down over Germany at the age of 19 and is buried in France. Hugh's younger sister, Jeanne, died of cancer at age 55.

Hugh attended St. Catherine School until the 7th Grade and then attended Assumption College High School in Windsor, Ontario, graduating in 1948. He also took real estate classes through the University of Michigan and continues to maintain his real estate license. He was a journeyman stereotyper like his father. When his trade was being phased out, he transferred to the Advertising Department of the Detroit Free Press, and operated as an account executive until his retirement in 1989.

Hugh met Mary Ann McDonald at the CYO Bowling Alley with the Junior Third Order in 1950. The Juniors were a very lively group involved in many spiritual and social activities. Hugh was professed as a Secular Franciscan in 1953. He and Mary Ann were married in June of 1955 at St. Ambrose Catholic Church. They have been blessed with four children and 12 grandchildren.

In the Intermediate Fraternity, Hugh served as Novice Master. For a number of years during the time of Fr. Cyril Langheim, Mary Ann and Hugh were workshop leaders. Hugh acted in the Passion Play under Fr. Lawrence Merten and Mary Ann was in the chorus. They have photos from these events and lots of good memories. Another memorable activity was canvassing the neighborhood around the Monastery for Bible Vacation School. At one point, Hugh drove a van to the Eastern Market to pick up produce and chickens for the Soup Kitchen on a regular basis.

Hugh and Mary Ann are parishioners of Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church. Hugh serves as a lector at the church. Mary Ann and Hugh are currently taking a Bible Study course in their parish which they enjoy very much.

Hugh's hobbies include photography, fixing things around the house and traveling. He is also very interested in protecting the environment in various ways. Hugh has always been happy to be a follower of St. Francis. He likes to pray a lot, be happy and enjoy God's many gifts.

We love you, Hugh!

Overview

“The whole of Creation will be liberated from its bondage to decay and will be brought into glorious freedom.”

St. Paul, Romans 8:21

Now is the time for that freedom!

As human beings we are called to participate in the liberation of the whole Body of Creation. Learn to see the Body of God with new eyes, be in solidarity with all of creation, and live sustainably in community.

- o Experience all of Creation as “a communion of subjects, not a collection of objects.” (Thomas Berry, eco-theologian)
- o Enter with the Earth into the transformative space of suffering
- o Understand the rights of all living beings to clean air, potable water, and restored land
- o Revive your prophetic voice and the soul-force needed for a movement of liberation
- o Explore passionate participation as a tool for change
