MINISTER'S LETTER

My dear brothers and sisters,

May God's peace and joy reign in your heart!

Welcome

At our fraternity gathering on January 15, Joe Gentile was welcomed into the inquiry phase of formation. Welcome to our fraternity, Joe.

Please note on your calendar

Please plan to attend the Mass for deceased Secular Franciscans on Saturday, February 25 at 10:00 a.m. Article 24 of the SFO Rule states that: "This communion continues with deceased brothers and sisters through prayer for them." Our Franciscan vocation calls us to pray for one another including all of our brothers and sisters who are experiencing the joy of eternal life.

125th Anniversary Celebration

On Sunday, May 20, we will celebrate the 125th anniversary of the founding of our fraternity. The members of the planning team are: Maryann Kummer, Janet Bodell, Joe Boland, Mary Hebert, Maryanne Kristensen, Sheryl Nordstrom, Bev Sapien, Chuck Sapien, Laura Sapien and Eileen Smith. The first planning meeting will be held on Saturday, January 28. Look for more details about this special celebration in the life of our fraternity in next month's Poverello.

Lenten Towel Drive

As announced at our January Chapter, there will be a white towel drive during Lent. Details will be announced in the March Poverello.

Reminder

If you have not sent in your portion of our Fair Share and Poverello expenses, please send them in by the end of the February.

Reflection

"United by their vocation as brothers and sisters of penance, and motivated by the dynamic power of the Gospel, let them conform their thoughts and deeds to those of Christ by means of that radical interior change which the Gospel itself calls conversion. Human frailty makes it necessary that this conversion be carried out daily" (SFO Rule, 7).

On February 22, we will begin our Lenten journey. As with any journey we embark upon, a time of preparation is needed to ensure that we derive the most benefit from the journey. The same is true of our Lenten journey.

For our Lenten journey to result in an interior change of heart, we cannot wait until Ash Wednesday to decide what we intend to do during the next forty days. During the weeks leading up to Ash Wednesday, we need to take the time to create an action plan for our Lenten journey. Perhaps we can begin by reflecting upon how we have experienced a radical interior change in the past, how the power of God's Word has transformed our lives, and to seek God's guidance on what needs changing in our lives.

In our busy, fast-paced lives, our Lenten journey provides us with a valuable opportunity to reflect upon our habits and attitudes, to pray more deeply, to prepare ourselves for rebirth and spiritual growth. Because each of us is a special and unique person, none of us will experience Lent in the same way. God has created a special plan for each of us to move us forward on our spiritual journey.

I remember, as I'm sure many of you do, when Lent was viewed as a time of giving something up – desserts, watching television, etc. – and a time for fasting and more prayer. As soon as Easter arrived, we could not wait to have some chocolate candy. We returned to our old habits and nothing changed. When I was in college, Lent was still a time of giving up something, but the thing I gave up was the precious gift of some personal time in order to devote time to read and reflect on Scripture and to allow God's Word to speak to my heart. This was the beginning of my daily quiet time to focus on developing a personal, intimate relationship with God.

In more recent years, the focus of my Lenten journey has changed from giving something up to focusing on an interior change of heart in order to become a new creation in Christ. It is learning over and over again to die to old ways of being and doing to become more Christ-like in interacting with others.

The radical interior change we, as Secular Franciscans, are called to is not easy. With so many activities clamoring for our attention and the fast pace of life, it is a daily struggle to choose to keep a commitment to a daily quiet time, to choose to live according to Gospel values, to treat family members with love and kindness, to live simply in a world where success is often measured by the things a person has acquired, to choose to give more generously to all those in need. Yet, with the grace of God, the power of God's Word, and the prayers of others, we can experience a change of heart.

Let us commit ourselves to praying for each other on our Lenten journey.

Looking forward to seeing you at our fraternity gathering on February 19. Please pray daily for vocations to the Secular Franciscan Order.

Your sister in Ss. Francis and Clare, maryann

COME AND SEE...

Brothers and sisters, it is advice the Master himself offers:

“Go out into the highways and byways and invite”

(Luke 14:3)!

On the Third Sunday of April — April 15th — St. Bonaventure Secular Fraternity is hosting an orientation session. The gathering begins at 12 Noon in the second floor conference room of the Solanus Casey Center.. Orientees are invited to remain for the Jubilarian Mass and social, if they wish.

New members don't drop down out of the heavens. They must hear about us. But “how can they hear...unless someone tell them...” (see Romans 10:14-15)?

We're looking for practicing, dedicated Catholics. Invite them, and let them then decide if they want to pursue it for themselves. If they don't want to go alone, come with them. You can always share with the group what being a Secular Franciscan has meant in your life.

So, please consider inviting even just one other person to “come and see” (John 1:46).

Members needing prayers:

Kiley
2 years old

Even at this early stage of life, tests revealed the presence of tumors in both of Kiley's eyes.

At St. Jude, doctors confirmed the diagnosis of retinoblastoma. Kiley underwent 11 rounds of chemotherapy and several laser surgeries. Sadly, she has lost the sight in her right eye, but the vision in her left eye has been spared. Kiley is now finished with treatment, but visits St. Jude every four weeks for checkups.

Kiley's mom is grateful for everything St. Jude provides. "I knew St. Jude covered treatment-related costs," she said. "But I just had no idea they would cover housing, mileage and meals when we're here. Everything is taken care of for us, and that's a huge weight off of our shoulders."

Kiley is an outgoing, funny girl. She loves to play with her baby dolls and color, and she's close to her big sister. "St. Jude is a wonderful place," said her mom. "Kiley has stayed happy. They do everything they can for her."

Celebrating Eileen [St. Germain] Smith

Eileen was born on October 8, 1962 to Margaret (deceased) and Valaire St. Germain at Providence Hospital in Southfield, Michigan. Eileen’s three siblings and their spouses are: Patrick (Melinda), David (Christina) and Carol (Val) Krawczyk. Her birth order is after David. Eileen has nine nieces and nephews.

Eileen has a Bachelors Degree in Information Systems from the University of Michigan – Dearborn and a Masters Degree in Business Administration from Wayne State University. Eileen has been employed at the Ford Motor Credit Company since January 2, 1985, and has held several positions within the company. She is presently the supervisor for the Plan and Rate Management Team.

Eileen and Ray Smith were married on October 27, 1987 at St. Frances Cabrini Church in Allen Park. They have been blessed with two wonderful sons: Raymond is 15 years old and Matthew is 12 years old.

Eileen and her family are members of St. Frances Cabrini Parish in Allen Park where Eileen teaches seventh grade religious education. She participates in Eucharistic Adoration, a MOMS Prayer and Sharing Group, and volunteers for campus ministry activities with the high school and junior high youth groups.

Eileen learned about the Secular Franciscan Order from her hair stylist, Mary. Mary heard Janet and John Bodell speak at Our Lady of the Woods Parish. Mary thought of Eileen as they spoke about the SFO and encouraged Eileen to look into the SFO. Eileen did as Mary suggested and spoke with John about her interest. John invited her to an orientation meeting and here she is 2½ years later.

Eileen is enjoying candidacy and is looking forward to being professed into our fraternity in October. She has met many wonderful people who have welcomed her with open arms. Candidacy is allowing her to grow in her spiritual life and to develop meaningful relationships. She is experiencing concretely the meaning of “other” and “communion”. “Joy” is the best word she can think of to express her experience. She is thankful for all of the wonderful brothers and sisters in her life.

In her free time, Eileen enjoys spending time with her family, swimming, teaching religious education, volunteering and knitting. She wants us to know that she has been blessed with a wonderful husband, Ray. It is with his continuous love and support that she can pursue her love for God and Franciscan spirituality with all of us.

We love you, Eileen!

TEE TIME

address to the 2012 Chapter by Br. Pat McSherry, OFM Cap

It's become tradition at our annual January Chapter for the spiritual assistant to share some independent reflections on the state of the local fraternity. My thoughts this year are few in number, but vital for our future.

I am very grateful that you took to heart the process of Appreciative Inquiry this past year. We spent a number of months going through this process, and from the feedback I've received from a number of you, it was not only well-received but greatly appreciated. I am quick to remind you that I was only a facilitator in the process; you did all the work!

From my experience with Appreciative Inquiry, I can say that most people who go through the process enjoy it. By its nature, it's affirming, up-lifting and hopeful. Many people, however, never reach the goal of the process, i.e., implementing a concrete plan for their future. I have come to believe the axiom: "If you want to be creative, hang around creative people." We witnessed that during the process. The sharing of one person's ideas gave momentum to the creative thinking process in others. Good ideas snowballed.

Let me remind you that Appreciative Inquiry involves four phases:

1) the Discovery Phase in which you – as Secular Franciscans – expressed your sense of being called by God and Spirit-led; you acknowledged that this fraternity was a support group for living the Gospel; that we have among ourselves a great sense of belonging and camaraderie. We left feeling proud, grateful and truly blessed.

2) Then we entered into the Dream Phase. Do you remember our three dreams?

First, to increase membership, especially with younger members.

Second, to get the message out: Who are the Secular Franciscans, and what do we do?

Third, to develop collaborative inter-Franciscan outreach programs, especially those for younger people.

3) When we moved into the Design Phase we came up with a number of concrete possibilities, many of them widely shared by our members. The goal was to formulate a plan of action for our fraternity. We entrusted the ongoing planning and implementation of our plan to small groups and the minister with her council.

In my opinion, we are now at a very critical point. We still have one foot in the Design Phase [we're still talking] and we're trying to move the other foot into the Destiny Phase, which calls for concrete action. So it's time to ask ourselves what has the Appreciative Inquiry process produced concretely thus far? We carried through on SFO hats and shirts. We have the kernel of a relationship with the young ladies of the St. Clare Society at Regina High School. But I think we still have a long way to go to move our dreams and plans forward.

What we also have is a great deal of excitement and desire. People, I think, are genuinely enthused about the prospects for our future as a fraternity. Enthusiasm is absolutely necessary for moving forward, but it's not enough. Many people who get so excited about the Appreciative Inquiry process never see its fruition because they sit and talk more than they follow through. They are left with a good feeling, but also with empty dreams. We have talked enough. Now we need to see some concrete action.

This, my friends, is TEE time. If our dreams and plans are to move into concrete reality we need members who have TIME - ENERGY - ENTHUSIASM for our cause.

We will be celebrating two great events during 2012, the "Year of Faith". The first harkens back to May 29, 1887 and marks the 125th anniversary of the founding of our fraternity. The second is our Chapter of Elections.

If each one of us decides to dedicate more time, energy and enthusiasm to making our shared dreams come true, then our 125th anniversary will not simply be an occasion to look back, but to look forward.

As we look ahead to our elections, we know that we need leaders who have the time, energy and enthusiasm – not to do all the work – but to continue to inspire, animate and prod us on.

This year is a golden opportunity for our fraternity. So I'll close with the paraphrased exhortation of St. Francis: "I have done what is mine to do, now you do what is yours to do" (Second Life of St. Francis by Thomas of Celano, 214).

Prayer for Quinquennial 2012

Dear and gracious, loving Lord and Father,
 We bring to you the upcoming Quinquennial.
 We thank you for the gift of our vocation to the Secular Franciscan Order, and for our brothers and sisters whom you have also called.
 Thank you for the example and inspiration of Francis and Clare,
 And grant us a new understanding and vision of their calling, and ours.
 Prepare our hearts to hear your call anew,
 and enkindle in us a new spirit of conversion and dedication.
 Bless those who will share with us,
 Bless those who will attend in person,
 Bless those who will attend in spirit.
 Let your Holy Spirit be poured out on our entire National Fraternity,
 That through this Congress we may together discern your heart,
 and become all that you want us to be,
 In order "to bring about a more fraternal and evangelical world," bringing to life more fully the Kingdom of God.
 We pray in the holy and blessed Name of Jesus, your Son. Amen.
