Minister's Letter

Lent Begins February 22!!!
Black Portraits to Visit Solanus Center!
Sunday February 19 Gathering – Conversations on Racism

“O God, You have come to us as one of us that we might come back to you, and so we pray: During this holy season of Lent, may your grace penetrate deep within our lives and transform us for the service of your Gospel.” (Franciscan Praise)

Sisters and Brothers,

Our January 8 St. Charles Luncheon was a great success. Many thanks to Sharon, Maryann and Ron for organizing and for all who volunteered. It was wonderful having so many members show up to serve. The spirit of fraternity was alive!

We have an exciting February at the Solanus Center. We are hosting Black Catholic Heroes Art Exhibit from February 10-12 and 14-20. There are 69 portraits of Black Catholics chosen, researched, and painted by 12 young Detroiters employed by the College for Creative Studies' Detroit Neighborhood Art Corps.

We have been asked to be greeters at this event to promote the portraits. Greeters would be needed during peak visiting hours. Please check your schedule and let me know your availability.

At our gathering on Sunday February 19, we are hosting “Conversations on Racism” presented by Madonna University’s Black Student Union facilitated by Jesse Cox Madonna’s Chief Diversity Officer. There is hospitality after the event for our guests. Please bring food for our hospitality. Included in this edition is a flyer for the event. Please promote this event to your family, friends and parish.

Doug Gordon our Vocations Coordinator is looking for a couple members to help him in this effort. I’m hoping we can form a vocations committee of three. Please contact Doug for details.

Ron Kessler is looking for 2 additional people to fill in when needed with the Healing Service Hospitality on Wednesdays. Please contact Ron Kessler.

I hope you took the time to reflect on the fraternity examen in January’s Poverello. As you see we have many opportunities to serve within our fraternity and at the Solanus Center. This includes serving as a greeter at the Sunday’s Healing Service from 1 to 3pm. I ask you to take your calendar to prayer and discern if there are opportunities where you can serve in a greater capacity.

I want to welcome Karen Parsons to our fraternity. She has officially transferred from St. Maximilian Kolbe Fraternity in Texas. She brings with her much fraternity experience. Welcome Karen!

Continue to pray for all those on our sick list.

Peace and Blessings,
Eileen

Reflection

A Litany and Examination of Conscience based on the Rule of the Secular Franciscan Order (Anonymous)

Response: Lord, have mercy

1. For all the ways I have brought division to my family, my community, my parish, or my fraternity...R
2. For all the ways I have not been life-giving, making present the charism of St. Francis to my family, friends, and fraternity brothers and sisters...R
3. For all the ways I have failed to strive for holiness...R
4. For all the ways I have not appreciated the unique gifts of each individual...R
5. For the times I have not looked to St. Francis as a model and source of inspiration...R
6. For the times I did not strive for perfect charity...R
7. For the ways I did not live the Gospel in the manner of St. Francis, from Gospel to life and life to Gospel...R
8. For the times that Christ—the Way, Truth, and Life—has not been the center of my life...R
9. For the times I have not been alive with the Spirit of St. Francis...R
10. For the times the Eucharist has not been my key encounter with the living Christ, after the example of St. Francis...R
11. For the times I have not looked for Christ in Scripture, in Eucharist, in Reconciliation and other Sacraments and in my brothers and sisters...R
12. For the times I have not proclaimed Christ by my life and my words...R
13. For the times I have not responded to the call to “rebuild the Church”...R
14. For the ways I have not lived in full communion with the Pope, bishops, and priests...R
15. For the times I have neglected the source of grace and mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation...R
16. For the times I have failed to worship the Father in prayer.
17. For the times I have stifled the interior call to conversion...R
18. For the times I have not showed my love for Mary by imitating her self-giving and confident prayer...R
19. For the times I have not faithfully fulfilled the duties of my state of life...R
20. For the times I did not witness like the poor and crucified Christ in difficulties...R
21. For the times I did not simplify my own material needs after Christ’s example of poverty...R
22. For the times I failed to be a good steward of God’s gifts...R
23. For the times I did not believe that living the Beatitudes would make me happy...R
24. For the times I have not embraced my vocation with purity of heart...R
25. For the times I have not gently and courteously welcomed every person as a gift from the Lord and as an image of Christ...R
26. For the times I have not encouraged proper use and protection of natural resources...R
27. For the times I have not been a peacemaker, seeking ways of unity and harmony through dialogue...R
28. For the times I have not been a messenger of perfect joy, striving to bring joy and hope to others...R
